Public House with Guest Accommodation
(and planning for a 10,000 sq.ft. extension)

Finn MacCool's PUBLIC HOUSE & GUEST INN

124 Main Street, Bushmills BT57 8QD

Situated in the town of Bushmills, close to the Giant's Causeway and only a few minutes walk from Bushmills Distillery, this Inn was once a Coach House dating back to the 1700's and is the oldest tavern in the village.

The existing property was renovated by the current owners around 2013 to provide 5 guest rooms to the first floor above the public house accommodation. These have proved extremely popular and the annual occupancy rate has risen to 70% in the short period of time.

The property is set on an extensive site. See OS Map attached. Furthermore, full planning permission is available for a major extension to the rear in a 2 and 3 storey building to provide additional restaurant, bedrooms and self-contained apartments. This could readily be reconfigured to provide a generous boutique hotel in a location which is a tourist destination and with the Open Championship coming to Royal Portrush in 2019 and new attractions opening soon within Portrush itself, the future looks bright for such a development.
